Older Style Home With Character

This appealing older style residence with many period features has endless possibilities.

The elegant front verandah opens into the generous entry hall, leading to the large front lounge with feature fire surround and reverse cycle split system air conditioning. The original art deco kitchen and meals area is separated by the quaint open fire place. All bedrooms are a good size with built-in-robos and separate office space. Central bathroom and laundry with second shower.

The high ceilings, decorative cornices and original light fittings add to the overall charm of this home.

Secure yard with carport, lock up shed with concrete flooring and power.

An ideal first home or investment property in a river end location. Call Today!
